Professor Joseph R. Strayer
Chairman, Department of History
Princeton University
Princeton, New Jersey

Dear Professor Strayer:

I would appreciate it if sometime at your convenience you would sit down and write me a letter as long and as detailed as your time permits, giving your analysis of the Board of National Estimates and your suggestions as to steps that could be taken to improve it. Please be completely frank. If you want you could divide your letter into two parts: one that I might make use of with others who are working on this problem, and one I would keep for my own private information.

I sincerely appreciate all that you did to help us during your year; I only wish you had been here longer.

Sincerely,

Signed A. W. D.
